

Construction Monitoring System

using
QT
GPS
Camera
MySQL-server

Description

Construction Monitor System is a tool for construction site inspector, which based on Maemo 5 software platform.

How it goes: construction site inspector loads into his Maemo based device information about construction sites, which contain GPS position and aspects to be inspected. After that he drives to the construction site and makes some inspections of the building to his inspection list, snapping some photos and so on. After that, the device synchronizes new inspection data with the server.

